Margaret R. (LaPlante) Paquette
MARIACHI MEXICO ANTIGUO
Mariachi Mexico Antiguo symbolizes extraordinary musicianship and a renewed focus on the tradition of Mariachi. Established in 2010, Mariachi Mexico Antiguo is comprised of dedicated and talented musicians. As ambassadors of the mariachi genre, Mariachi Mexico Antiguo has performed by invitation throughout the Western United States and in New England.

SAMBA VIVA
Samba Viva is a Brazilian dance ensemble dedicated to authentically promoting Brazilian culture through dance and music. With our troupe of dynamic and polished dancers, SambaViva immerses you in the experience of Brazil, from Rio to Bahia and everything in between.

Lindsay & Her Puppet Pals
Lindsay & Her Puppet Pals delight the young and young at heart through her highly interactive, comedic performances. Her jumbo sized, hand-crafted puppets provide loveable characters for thoughtful and memorable short tales.
About the Performers

Strathspey & Reel
The Strathspey & Reel Society of New Hampshire seeks to preserve and promote Scottish culture through the playing of traditional Scottish music. The group performs concerts several times each year at events as varied as NEFFA, the New Hampshire Highland Games, or a concert at a local library or nursing home.

Black Sea Salsa
Black Sea Salsa is a 12-piece juggernaut of a band made up of 4 horns 4 vocalists and a 4-piece rhythm section. Led by trumpeter Dan Teager, who writes and arranges the band’s repertoire, this world-music group delivers an original, high-energy mix of Latin Jazz and Blues that crosses four continents, and is guaranteed to get an audience moving.

Cape Cod African Dance & Drum
This dance & drumming will get your blood pumping and your heart soaring....feel the rhythms of the basic style of African dance as well as traditional dances from Mali, Guinea and Senegal, West Africa. Led by Tara Murphy and the drummers of Cape Cod African Dance and Drum. African dance and drumming brings people together in happiness, for rejuvenation, health and community. “We dance and play for the love of African culture and joy and healing of its art forms.”

Sunflower Fusion
Sunflower Fusion performs World Music from Africa, South America, and Israel, as well as from other cultures and places. Marie Mendelow, on percussion, enriches the music with her large collection of percussion instruments from her travels around the world. She has played in the Primary Orchestra of South Africa. Although the group has been in existence for several years, it is newly formed with Katrina Tsao, who is 15 years old and a student of Marie’s, on piano and keyboards and Sue Hurwitz on C flute and alto flute, who has appeared as a soloist at the Museum of Fine Arts & The Boston Opera House.

Doc Fuller & Ramona Connelly
Joe “Doc” Fuller is an active musical performer in the Portsmouth, NH area, and has been playing music publicly for four decades. He’s currently specializing in Celtic music, Irish and Scottish ballads, tunes and songs, along with traditional folk music. Ramona Connelly, who plays fiddle, banjo, and accordion, has been active in the Celtic music scene for several decades.

Neha Parikh Sharma
Neha Parikh Sharma is a well-acclaimed Bharatanatyam dancer and the artistic director of “Chidambaram Nritya Kala Academy”, a dance school in Concord, NH. She has a master’s in fine arts (Classical dance) from Nalanda institute, Mumbai university. She and her students have won several awards and received accolades for their performances.

As always, we want to say THANK YOU to all of our supporters & advertisers, vendors, social service agencies, our entertainers & performers, The City of Laconia and especially YOU for coming out & continuing to support this great celebration of culture and diversity in the Lakes Region. We are so proud to be celebrating our 19th year of bringing this event to our great City.

The LMF committee invites you to “travel around the world” with us. We promise that your “tour” will please not only your palette, but your eyes and ears and warm your heart! Cultures & countries represented, and presented mostly by local friends & neighbors, here today include: Africa, Argentina, Bhutan, Canada, Cape Verde, Celtic, Central America, Chinese, Columbia, Congo, Cuban, Dominican, Egypt, Germany, Greek, Haitian, Iraqi, Irish, India, Italy, Jewish, Madagascar, Nepal, Palestine, Peru, Philippine, Rwandan, Spanish, Syrian, Thailand, United States.

Adding to the richness of this great event are the many Social Service organizations, who work tirelessly all year to make our community great!

As this festival continues to grow, we are always looking for volunteers to assist with the planning and execution of the festival, so please follow us on Facebook and check out our website for meeting details:

Laconia Human Relations Committee
The Laconia Human Relations Committee, a Mayor’s Committee, was created in 2000 by then Mayor Matthew Lahey and Police Chief Bill Baker. David Stamps is currently LHRC Chair.

The Committee
(1) seeks to Cultivate a community-wide climate that does not tolerate prejudice of any kind which undermines the dignity of any person.
(2) Educates about prejudicial attitudes.
(3) Promotes policies and practices which encourage and demand equal opportunity and responsibility for all people
(4) Proactively resists and publicly condemns any practices or incidents in our community which either result from or might encourage prejudice, intolerance, harassment and discrimination.

The Laconia Multicultural Festival is a committee of the LHRC. Mayor Ed Engler and the LHRC committee welcome new members from the Laconia area. For information call Laconia City Hall - 527-1270 or David Stamps, 387-4382 or david@davidstamps.com
The "Everyone is Welcome in Laconia" yard sign is a project of the Laconia Human Relations Committee. Please stop by the LMF Booth to get yours for only $10. The money will be used for future projects supporting human relations. We hope to partner with other organizations. Our next meeting is Sept. 17, 3pm at City Hall. Agenda and minutes are posted on Laconia's website.
